OH, SO SICK!

THE DEMOCRACY IS VERY SICK. NO CHANCE FOR ITS RECOVERY. STATE RIGHTS TREASON MADE ODDIOUS.

LATE GENERAL NEWS.

The latest from Ohio is that Foster's majority is full 20,000, and that the state senate has 22 Republicans to 15 Democrats, and the house 70 Republicans out of 114, which is its full membership. If this is true the Republicans have both houses, and 33 on joint ballot.

Iowa has elected its Governor by 30,000 majority over all, and by 80,000 over the Democrats, and 105,000 over the Greenbackers.

Mrs. Joseph Gales, the widow of the late Joseph Gales, the distinguished editor of the old National Intelligencer, died in Washington on the 15th inst., at the age of 81. Mrs. Gales was one of the Lees of Virginia, was a leader in society, and for many years distinguished for her beauty and accomplishments.

The Ute Indians have all stamped out from the scene of the Thorburg battle, and it is not known where they are. Gen. Merritt's command has scouted the country for fifty miles around there, and found nothing. Some think they have gone to the southern Utes, but last news is that they are friendly and had nothing to do with the late fighting. Santa Fe and Tucson dispatches are to the effect that the Apaches are organizing for depredations and have already commenced.

Gov. Jarvis and staff are in Philadelphia attending the meeting of the Governors of the original thirteen states, held to make arrangements for celebrating the centennial of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown.

Capt. O. H. Blocker, Internal Revenue Agent, has unearthed extensive revenue frauds in the county of Gaston.

A severe hurricane is reported on the line of the European steamers.

Wheat in Chicago rose to $2.23 and then fell to 1.88 1/2 on Friday. Corn declined 3 cts. and laid fell 20 cts.

A great hurricane in Spain and a six inch snow storm in Austria.

Zach. Chandler in one of his speeches in New York said: In the days of Jackson South Carolina raised the flag of rebellion, and the threat was then made that unless the tariff law was changed to suit a few discontents under Calhoun they would overthrow the government, and General Jackson at once exclaimed: "Let South Carolina commit the first overt act of rebellion against the government, and by the Eternal, I will hang John C. Calhoun!" (applause)—and every man, woman and child in America at that time, including Calhoun, knew that he would do it. Then, again, later, rebellion raised its hideous head and threats were daily and hourly made to dissolve the Union. When they said this to Old Ben Wade of Ohio his answer was: "Gentlemen, don't delay it on any account." (Laughter.) But they went into it and were defeated, and we restored to them all their rights of citizenship. We took them to our bosoms as brethren, hoping they had repented of their sins and heresies. We killed for them the fatted calf and invited them to the feast, and they gravely informed us that they had always owned that calf! (Laughter.)

Gen. Grant is in Oregon.

The yellow fever having increased is now diminishing.

The Gate City Guards of Atlanta, Ga., are being banqueted in Boston.

The Holbrooks in Carter county, Kentucky, have killed all the male members of the Underwood family, except an old man, who is wounded. No one has been arrested although these murders have been going on for several years. It was a family feud of the most delightful character according to that sort of civilization.

Thirty-six buildings have been burned in Shediac, New Brunswick, loss $90,000.

Mr. Ran Tucker says the people of Virginia sustained no damage by abolishing slave property; it was merely taking $1,000 from a white pocket and putting it in a black one. This shows how much he knows of the real condition of the people. The destruction of the labor of the state carried with it the land. Land has no market value now in Virginia, and as it yields no profit as an investment, is intrinsically worthless. —Richmond Whig Daily

At the woman's rights convention in session, the Governor and lady gave them a reception, and Ole Bull and Mrs. Bull gave them a concert. Dr. Julia Holmes Smith of Chicago read a paper upon the women of the south in which she said: The need of the south to-day is a deeper respect for the labor and the money it earns. This sentiment is necessarily of slow growth from former custom and education. The need of the women of the south is encouragement. In poverty, loneliness, and sorrow they are working out their own salvation.

The Savannah News says that the cotton crop of Mississippi this year will turn out to be a good one, and the statistician, who is already at work, says that more than fifty per cent of it is produced by white labor. This is one of the most gratifying things we have heard of. If the white labor of the south can be utilized the south may yet grow rich.

JOHN SHERMAN.

The news from Ohio that Charles Foster the Republican candidate for Governor is elected by 20,000 majority over all the Democrats and Greenbackers combined, makes the nomination of Hon. John Sherman by the next National Republican Convention a certainty. It was understood when Foster was nominated that he was Mr. Sherman's candidate and Foster's defeat would be Sherman's defeat. Therefore Foster's election makes Mr. Sherman the strongest candidate who could be nominated by the Republican Convention.

With Sherman as the next Republican candidate we shall carry the election, even if New York should go Democratic. Sherman can and will carry a solid north. He can and will carry North Carolina by a very large majority also. Grant don't want the nomination, and will not take it, and his friends will support Sherman.

OHIO AND IOWA.

The voting of the two great trans-Alleghany states last week was as distinct in its antecedents and its making up, as it is comprehensive and conclusive in its results. The canvass in both states was conducted openly and boldly upon the issues raised by the conduct of the Democratic Congress at the last session, on the questions cognate to resumption and resumption itself, and on the general principles of Republicanism. And under these conditions the triumph lacks no element of completeness. It is true that Iowa could not be considered a debatable ground, so staunch and impregnable is its Republicanism, but the largeness of its vote and the broad volume of its utterance give it significance. In Ohio, however, it was a battle ground. The Democrats employed strategic positions of their own selection. They were assaulted in their own fastnesses, and visited with a rout as complete as it was significant. It was, indeed, a victory of the stalwarts as against the specious pleadings of "free elections," "reform" and the general baseless sophistries of the Democrats.

The fact that on this debatable ground, about which people two months ago were speculating as to chances, the result has been so decisive, goes far toward giving confidence to Republicans everywhere as to the future. It is a premonition of what is to come when the people of the two other great states of New York and Pennsylvania shall echo back the voices from beyond the Alleghenies.

DR. FUG NE GRISSOM.

We had the pleasure of meeting this distinguished gentleman in Raleigh a few days ago. He is in good health and seemed to be enjoying the glorious news from Ohio and Iowa. He looked a fox to the Fair Association for a race. The name of the fox was "Thurman," and they propose to chase the fox as the Republicans chased the foxy old Thurman in Ohio.

Dr. Grissom states that he is not a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, and says he would not accept the nomination if tendered him by the Republican convention. He further states that he is in favor of Judge Buxton. He says Judge Buxton can be elected (if nominated by the Republicans) by a very handsome majority. He says if the Republicans will nominate Buxton he will take hold of the canvass and give it his personal attention. And he has no doubt of the success of the state ticket, if good men are nominated with Buxton. With Buxton as the candidate for Governor and Grissom in charge of the canvass, and Sherman electors in the field success will certainly be ours.

The Democratic party were exceedingly anxious for a complete capture of the southern states from the Republicans. They succeeded by the most flendish outrages ever committed by any people in making the south sectional; but now when the north have put the stamp of condemnation upon their conduct, they (the Democrats) are loud in their prayers for a better feeling between the sections. They shoot colored men and white Republicans; they bulldoze the Republicans of the south from voting; they stuff the ballot boxes to carry elections; they break up Republican public meetings; they enter secret society meetings of the colored people that are not political; they kill the children and outrage the women; they murder the ministers of the Gospel, because they are colored or white Republicans. And then, after all these hellish outrages, they abuse the Union people of the north for being solid. The mills of the Gods grind slowly, but exceeding fine.

The shot gun policy of the Democrats made the south solid for Democratic state rights. Therefore the Democrats can't complain that the north should also be solid for the nation's rights.

The Earl of Mayfield has had a remarkable success. Its publishers, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, of Philadelphia, have already issued the fourth edition. The leading papers speak of it in terms of the highest praise, and it has all the appreciation that the most sanguine expectations of the author could have anticipated. It is a decidedly popular romance. For sale by all Booksellers.

We call attention to new advertisements on the fourth page.

CRIMINAL COURT.—The October term of the Criminal Court closed on the 13th, at 6 o'clock P. M., having convened on the 6th ult. Thirty-four jury cases were disposed of, including burglary, perjury, larceny and other minor offenses.

The following were convicted and sentenced to the State Penitentiary: Abram McKenzie, larceny, 5 years. Daniel Richardson, larceny, 10 years each, in two cases. Daniel Brown, larceny, 6 years. Gould Foy, larceny, 3 years. Gabe Everett, larceny, 3 years.

THE SOUTH ATLANTIC.—It is always pleasant to say good word for this, our home monthly, which is deserving of much more support than we fear, it gets. The October number comes to our table with much agreeable reading. General Clingman's notes of "Grandfather Mountain, and Jim Bidle" throws a classic air around a thoroughly mountain character, and relates freshly a story of nearly fifty years ago. "John Davidson's Wife," a story which has been running a long time, is concluded in this number. And Paul Hayne, nearly, if not quite, the first of southern lyrical poets, has a ballad entitled "Dorothy—the Gift of God." We wish Mr. Hayne would improve his style somewhat in such lines as:

"In the haunts of the sacred dead," "And, "A face with its blush-rose, faint," "And, "Was the lady whose pity, sweet," And other violations of taste, and forced rhymes. But such lines as: "With the richness of mellowed summer, And the bloom of the golden south, O'er the lines of the snow-white forehead, And the curves of the breathless mouth, are a compensation for many faults.

BULLDOZING.—On Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock the editor of this paper left Raleigh. He took a seat in the back end of the last car. There was a lot of country people in the car on their way home to Johnson, Sampson and Pender counties. There were also a young colored man, well dressed, and exceedingly well behaved, sitting in the seat just opposite us, the white men were somewhat intoxicated. About ten miles out from Raleigh the colored man lay his head back on his seat and went to sleep, whereupon a very large white man from Clinton, Sampson county, who was eating an apple, got up and went to the colored man and took a piece of apple out of his own mouth and put it in the colored man's mouth, which gave the colored man (very justly) great offense, and he requested to know what it meant, and protested against such treatment, which aroused the white man and, headed by the fellow from Sampson, they swore that the colored man should leave the car and started to put him out by force, using very emphatic language in the mean time. When the representative of the Post saw the intention of the kluks gang, he jumped in between the colored man and his would-be assassins, and told them that they could not hurt him. He also made the colored man take a seat and he sat near and protected him to Goldsboro. When the cowardly crowd saw they had some one else to deal with besides a poor defenceless colored man, they all slunk back in their seats except an upstart of a lawyer who was drunk, but he was immediately looked after by a gentleman from Pender. The balance of the crowd satisfied themselves by gritting their teeth and telling the colored man that they "belonged to the kluks" and had eaten 20 negroes." We will not publish the names of these contemptible bulldozers unless they should undertake at some future time to repeat this outrageous conduct. It is about time for them to learn that colored men have some rights which should be respected, and at some time when they little expect it they will meet their just reward for imposing upon respectable colored men, for some one will be hurt.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—NEW LAW.—Under the late act of Congress relative to the organization of jurors for the United States Court, Mr. E. S. McQuigg was appointed a Commissioner, by his Honor, Geo. W. Brooks, Judge of the District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, to assist the Clerk of said Court to execute the order in compliance with the act. The names of four hundred and fifty-two citizens residing in the counties of New Hanover, Duplin and Brunswick were deposited in a box, from which the following thirty-five names were drawn to act as jurors, and are required to assemble November 4th, 1879, at the U. S. District Court Room, viz: P. Heinsberger, C. D. Morrell, C. Lilly, Norwood Giles, J. H. Durham, E. J. Pennypacker, S. McL. Green, E. B. Wiggins, Morris Bear, A. R. Black, S. A. Currie, Wilkes Morris, Henry Reeder, Iredell Johnson, S. G. Hall, Jas. A. Lowry, H. Loeb, R. M. McIntyre, Edward Stills, E. F. Cason, C. H. King, Owen Pennell, Jr., F. M. Wooten, W. H. Northrop, W. J. Perry, S. G. Northrop, Chas. Schriver, Hezekiah Reed, Wilmington, New Hanover county.

Edwin Legg, F. M. Wescott, Smithville, Brunswick county. Sam'l R. Chinis, Town Creek. Clem Hill, Warsaw, Duplin county. G. W. Graham, Chingepin. Kedar Bryan, Magnolia. John A. Bryan, Kenansville.

The haste with which Col. T. M. Holt of Alamance declined to be an independent candidate for Governor when nobody had asked him to be, naturally leads to reflection on the general subject of independent Democrats in the south. Col. Holt cannot possibly be ignorant that this class is not new in the south, nor even in North Carolina. There has never yet been known a Democrat in this exceedingly proper state, so starched up and narrow minded, that he would not accept an office by the aid of Republican votes if he could get them. A distinguished example of this class is ex-Senator Merrimon, who did not seem to be staggered at all, when he found he could get sixty-five Republican votes and thus be made United States Senator. Not a very small number, in deed, besides the ex-Senator have been at times a little thin skinned, and would talk loosely behind barns, in nook

There is however in this state a class of real independents, who if they had the pluck to break from the party hampers, would get a good following. There is no mistaking the fact that there is deep and bitter dissatisfaction among the Democrats as to matters of policy and the details of party affairs. They are not a happy family at all. And there is a restiveness among the people at the narrow and illiberal legislation and at that sort of management that keeps people and capital from coming here, and causes the state to grow poorer and poorer each year. We have had more defective legislation since 1870 than in whole generations at same previous times. There has not been an election since 1870 when there was not enough of the liberal Democratic element in the state to carry it, if united with the Republican vote. Whether the thunder-clap will come next year depends on the boldness of those who are now grumbling inside their jackets.

These experiments into the character of this great evil, and the attempt to discover some decisive remedy, are made by men skilled in these matters and promise much relief to the farmers and stock raisers of our country. We shall undertake to make abstracts from some of the most intelligible of these reports soon, for the benefit of our farmer readers who are suffering from these diseases of domestic animals.

The effect of the verdict will be to still further widen the breach in the Democratic party, to lead to new combinations, and we trust to show to both elements of the old party the necessity of moving forward much nearer to the position occupied by Republicans, not indeed a position quite to the front

An election will be held at the Court House, in Wadesboro, on the 13th of November, 1879, at which the voters of Wadesboro township will pass upon the question of "License" or "Prohibition."

A state exchange says: The colored people of this county seem bent on emigrating somewhere. One party will meet on the 18th of this month, who are going to Kansas, and another party will meet on the 25th, who favor going to Liberia. It is reported that there is about 500 who intend to start for Liberia about the 1st of November.

The North Carolina State Baptist Convention meets in Oxford Wednesday, November 5th, 1879, and in order to supply the people of the State with a daily report of the proceedings of the convention, the Torchlight will be issued daily during the session and will be sent post paid to subscribers for the small sum of 25 cents.

The Winston Leader says: Our people seem to have given lukewarm support to the subject of railroads. We would advise them to be alive to their interests. Monarchs are doing all around us and there is no telling what plans may be perfected and we left out in the cold. The Virginia Midland Railroad is to be extended from Danville to Stateville. Will our people let it go by Germantown in preference to this place? This is a very important matter and our citizens should take some steps to secure this road.

Mr. Walter S. Cushman, formerly of Massachusetts, but for the past eight or ten years a resident of Asheville, has interested himself in behalf of this section of country, and perhaps has done more than any other man in this section in indicating the superior advantages the transmontane section of North Carolina offers to the European immigrant.

The Asheville Journal says: From the run of conversation we came to the conclusion that President Wilson is hardly of opinion that the Western Division can lay claim to the fund. It may be possible that the Western Division has no claim on the $25,000, but if it has, and establishes the fact, we can hardly see how Mr. Wilson can constitute himself a trustee for the creditors of the Western Division. There is no law making him trustee, and there is no law making the trustees of the said Western Division. Judge Graves held, at Asheville, that the Legislature had no right to take the assets of the Western Division and place them in other hands than the trustees of the Western Division, and as far as our information goes, the lawyers all over the country, that know of the case, agree with Judge Graves. However, his decision is to be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

NASBY.

"A Few Words for Jint Discussion." Attention is directed to the "Root and Branch Discussion" in the southern states, prepared by that typical southern Democrat, the Rev. Petroleum V. Nasby, of "Confederate X Roads, which is in the state of Kentucky."

The next election is liable to be extremely egotistical, and there should be in the south a uniformity of means to be proposed that our success may be assured. We must have a solid south, that the votes of the states now groaning under Federal despotism may be thrown for the candidate which will recognize the fact that the south has rights and is ready to maintain them.

In all jilt discussions in the southern states these roots should be observed.

1. When a radical shows a desire to discuss, the rifle should never be used. The revolver is better, for there are six loads in a navy and the second may do. But the shot-gun is the proper weapon, for shot scatter, and no matter how shaky a chivalry's hand may be, the other discussor can't get out of range of a charge of shot.

2. Never depend upon a single barrel gun. It may take two charges to finish an obnoxious discussor.
3. Alluz yooze the old fashioned muzzle loader. The cartridges that you load with shot, which won't alluz do. And, the breech loader is a Yankee weepin, and no true southerner will yooze anything a Yankee made unless he kin git it on credit.

4. Load with a heavy charge of buck-shot, and alluz put in two or three slugs. Slugs is more convincing than buckshot, as they tear a bigger hole.
5. Alluz aim at the button on the back of the coat. The charge then penetrates the kidneys and liver and the disturber dies on the spot. It is crookety to prolong the sufferings.

6. Be keeful the disturber quits kickin, go afore the nearest justice up the peace and deliver yourself up. It's wifumjelly admit you to byle, and the infamous charge that the southern citizen is not law abiding will be disproved.

7. Free speech is the bulwark of our civilization, and everybody must enjoy it, but ez disturbers can't be allowed, let it be understood that only Democrats can enjoy that privilege. Meetings, Radicals bein incenary, must be sternly suppressed.

8. A speaker should never be shot while on the stand. Lay for him when he has got through. It will be found that after a few uv em biv silenced none will vencher on it.
9. Nigger meeting houses and Sunday schools should be permitted, ez they are the hot beds of Radicalism. One Methodist preacher will offset the good work of a dozen grocers.

10. Postmasters should see to it that no Radical papers are permitted to be circulated. Noose papers is a noose, and ef the Radicals are prevented from taken em they will be entirely suppressed in our section, ez the troo Dimekrat don't take em at all. The less noose-papers the better the Dimekrat.

There are other things that might be recommended, but ef these is followed there is no doubt uv a glorious Dimekrat victory next year. With Tilden's bar in the north, and the tilde gun in the south, we can elect the next President.
